Important Information about Registering for Workshops

Dropping a Workshop and Refunds: Once this registration has been signed and processed it cannot be changed. It is a commitment to pay all tuition costs and you will remain registered unless you take action to cancel your registration prior to the end of the first day of the workshop. After the first day of the workshop, tuition is non-refundable. To review the University's refund policy, go to:

<http://www.uakron.edu/student-accounts/refunds/>

Application Denial: If a student previously enrolled at The University of Akron is not in good standing with The University of Akron, his/her application may be denied for registration and/or graduate credit. The student will be notified if his/her application is not accepted.

Online Payment: Log in to <https://commerce.cashnet.com/UAEDUC>

If you encounter a problem, you may contact the Office of Student Accounts at 330-972-5100.

Grading Method: This is a graduate-level workshop (500) and you must have a bachelor's degree to receive graduate-level credit. Workshops are graded as Credit/No Credit; no letter grade will be issued. NO CEUs will be given when graduate credit is awarded.

University Transcript Requests, Office of the Registrar: Visit <https://uakron.edu/registrar/transcripts/>

Please note that transcripts will not be released if there is an outstanding balance on the student account.
